Q. Write a cause and effect paragraph of nuclear power disasters.

Nuclear disasters bring great destruction to the people around the globe. Misusing it can even wipe out humanity, and nuclear disasters in Japan and Chernobyl ultimately justify it. This catastrophe can occur due to natural disasters such as tsunami or an earthquake. Similarly, human errors are also significant reasons that cause a reactor meltdown which starts a chain reaction and thus results in a massive explosion. Effects of nuclear explosions are so lethal that it lasts one's lifetime. Radiations due to explosions harm the whole environment, animals and the whole ecosystem. Usually, nuclear disasters result in immediate deaths, injuries, and destruction of towns, cities, buildings, and infrastructure.

Q. In the list of two articles, prepare a list of tasks to be done if a nuclear accident happens at any plant.

1. The people near the fallout zone must be evacuated immediately to a safe shelter with proper arrangements like food, water, and medicine.
2. People with injuries must be given proper treatment.
3. Government should provide financial assistance to the victim's family.
4. Government must immediately remove radioactive substances and debris from fallout zones.
5. Government should provide lifetime healthcare assistance to the people exposed to radiation.
